

Jewish Democratic Council of America (JDCA) Internship

Description:

Serve as an integral part of a growing team at the Jewish Democratic Council of America (JDCA) as an intern and have a meaningful and impactful experience furthering Jewish and Democratic values. Looking for Washington, D.C.-based interns. We are accepting qualified applicants on a rolling basis.

- The JDCA is the voice of Jewish Democrats representing a socially progressive, pro- Israel platform.
- The mission of the organization is to advocate for the policy priorities of the Jewish Democratic community, and to support Democratic candidates and elected officials who represent our values.
- JDCA is played a critical role in the midterm elections by endorsing candidates, mobilizing the Jewish vote, and organizing volunteers.
- Interns will be an integral part of the JDCA staff and community and will have a diverse range of opportunities unique to a new political organization.

Responsibilities:

- Assist the Executive Director and other staff with day-to-day operations.
- Help to develop briefing materials on a range of political and policy issues.
- Conduct political research, draft memos and background documents.
- Help to plan events and engagement with Board members, candidates, elected officials, congressional staff, organizations, students, and campaigns.

Compensation:

- This is an unpaid internship, best suited for students seeking college credit.
- Small stipends may be available if college credit is not an option.

To apply:

- Send resume and cover letter to info@jewishdems.org.
