

Jewish Democratic Council of America

Mike Levin (CA-49):

- "I am deeply honored to receive the support of Jewish Dems for my re-election. As the product of a mixed Jewish and Catholic family, I grew up honoring both traditions and join the JDCA in working for social justice, mutual respect, and vigorous opposition to antisemitism and hate in all its pernicious forms."

Eric Sorensen (IL-17):

- "I'm grateful to earn the support of the Jewish Democratic Council of America and look forward to working together to strengthen democracy, address climate change, and secure reproductive rights. I'm proud to share the values of Jewish Democrats and together, we will flip the House!"

Angie Craig (MN-02)

- "As we witness an alarming rise in anti-Semitic actions around the world, there has never been a more important time for JDCA's leadership. I am honored to have earned their endorsement and remain committed to working with them to build a stronger, safer America for all."

Chris Pappas (NH-01)

- "I'm honored to have the endorsement of the Jewish Democratic Council of America. In the wake of Hamas's violent terrorist attacks against Israel and the troubling rise in antisemitism we have seen across the globe, it's more important than ever that we stand up to hate. I'll always fight to keep Jewish communities safe and secure and create a more just society for all."

Pat Ryan (NY-18)

- "After the horrific terrorist attack by Hamas on Israel, and amidst a historic rise in antisemitism, it is more important than ever that we stand united alongside the State of Israel and against hate in all forms. I'm proud to receive this endorsement from JDCA, and look forward to working alongside them to combat antisemitism, preserve our democracy and defend our fundamental freedoms as Americans."

Greg Landsman (OH-01):

- "I'm proud to stand with JDCA in the fight for safety, justice, and fairness in the U.S., in Israel, and around the world. My Jewish faith is one of the biggest reasons why I entered public service, and JDCA's work to uplift the voices of the Jewish Democratic community is vital for the security of our communities and the strength of our democracy."

Jewish Democratic Council of America

Marcy Kaptur (OH-09):

- "Receiving the Jewish Democratic Council of America's endorsement is a true honor. As a life-long friend to the Jewish community who is dedicated to ensuring our Jewish communities feel safe, secure, and welcome, I have found similarities in the teachings of my own faith background and that of Judaism. Charity and the Jewish tenant of Tzedakah to go hand in hand. My own service is an extension of those beliefs that giving back to others and helping those in need are vitally important. I am so grateful to JDCA for its support. I look forward to continuing our work together to make life better for those who entrust us to serve and to ensure a big Democratic win in 2024."

Emilia Sykes (OH-13):

- "I am honored to have the support of the Jewish Democratic Council of America. I am proud to stand with them in defending our democracy, combating right-wing extremism and antisemitism, and supporting our Jewish communities and the State of Israel's right to exist."

Andrea Salinas (OR-06):

- "I'm honored to have the support of the Jewish Democratic Council of America. We are living through extraordinarily difficult times, with rising antisemitism around the globe and our ally Israel continuing to face attacks by Hamas terrorists. Now more than ever, we must stand with our Jewish neighbors—and I am proud to be a vocal advocate for the Jewish community both here in Oregon and across the country."

Susan Wild (PA-07):

- "As a proud Jewish Democrat, it's an honor to have earned the endorsement of the Jewish Democratic Council of America. I'm deeply committed to continuing the important work of confronting antisemitism and hate, and of protecting our shared values of justice and democracy."

Marie Gluesenkamp Perez (WA-03):

- ""I'm thrilled to accept the endorsement of Jewish Democratic Council of America. They are doing the hard work it takes to build an equitable future for our communities and push back against those who appeal to xenophobia and hate. We're excited to get to work with the JDCA to win back the House in 2024."

Jewish Democratic Council of America

Kim Schrier (WA-08):

"I am deeply honored to have received an endorsement from the Jewish Democratic Council of America. I look forward to our continued relationship and upholding our shared Jewish and Democratic values for the betterment of the United States."
